REGARDING JEREMY CHRISTIAN AND THE PORTLAND TRAIN ATTACK

Our faith should never be used as a tool to promote hate.

Huginn's Heathen Hof has just come across solid evidence that Jeremy Christian may indeed have identified as a member of our own religious community. As fellow worshippers of the Old Norse & Germanic deities, we feel that we cannot stress strongly enough exactly how much we deplore the use of our faith as a tool to promote racism and violence.

It is not commonly known outside of our own (comparatively small) religious community, but we Heathens have gone to great lengths to combat the rising tide of racism and white supremacy. There is a document called "Declaration 127", which is a joint statement signed by nearly 200 Heathen (Norse/Germanic Polytheist) organizations in 17+ nations. It is the largest collective, global, action ever undertaken by our religious community, and it states in no uncertain terms that we oppose all forms of racism and bigotry.

*Hvars þú böll kannt kveðu þat böllvi at ok gefat þínum fjándum frið
“When you see misdeeds, speak out against them, and give your enemies no peace”

About Huginn's Heathen Hof, LLC

Huginn's Heathen Hof is a place for Community, and exploration of the history and our traditions. In addition to hosting free mailing lists and an online library, HHH provides quality editorials and news written by a devoted team of Heathens that represent the many disparate perspectives and philosophies of our religious community. We believe in promoting Heathen authors, crafts, and businesses, in addition to sharing news of what's going on in local Heathen communities around the world, and reflecting the true diversity of our traditions.
